Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 7 and 8 lack a process step which set out and circumscribe the invention. The terminology "aggregated by means" and "deposited on said substrate by means" fail to clearly set forth a process step with any clarity. Terminology such as "mixing said powders and spray drying to form an aggregate" and "depositing said thermal spray powder of claim 1 on said substrate by plasma spraying" will overcome this rejection. Also "the spray dryer" and "the plasma spraying" lack antecedent basis.

Claim 9, the terminology "prepared by means of the method in claim 8" is considered to render the claim indefinite since it is not clear if the method is required or no. Terminology such as "A composite material prepared by the method of claim 8." is suggested.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 1-9 are objected to because of the following informalities:

In the claims applicants are requested to insert "A" and "The" before each of the claims. Also it is requested to remove "characterized in that" from the claims since it is not clear if the claims are being limited to the recited limitations or not.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102 and 103

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-5,10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamada et al (6,143,207).

Yamada et al see example 5, which teaches a silicon carbide/ titanium boride mixed powder of 40 microns. See also example 6 for zirconium boride. The mixture is sintered to form an article not patentably distinguishable from claim 10. The claims are considered anticipated.

7. Claims 1-5,10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kondakov (5,500,394).

Kondakov teaches a mixed powder including silicon carbide and titanium boride in amounts of 4-20 mass% and particle size of up to 40 microns, see column 2, lines 11-16. The claims are considered anticipated.

8. Claims 1-3,10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bull et al (5,750,450) , Sugawara et al (4,735,923),and GB2170516, each taken alone.

Bull et al, see examples 1 and 2. The claims are considered anticipated.

Sugawara et al see examples 1-6 for SiC and zirconium boride mixtures and sintered bodies. The claims are considered anticipated.

Double Patenting

9. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

10. Claims 6-8 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-16 of U.S. Patent No. 6,761,937. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the scope of the claims overlap.

One of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made would have considered the invention to have been obvious because the process limitations taught by Tului et al overlap the instantly claimed proportions and therefore are considered to establish a prima facie case of obviousness. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to select any portion of the disclosed ranges including the instantly claimed ranges from the ranges disclosed in the prior art reference, particularly in view of the fact that;

“The normal desire of scientists or artisans to improve upon what is already generally known provides the motivation to determine where in a disclosed set of percentage ranges is the optimum combination of percentages”, In re Peterson 65 USPQ2d 1379 (CAFC 2003).

Also, In re Geisler 43 USPQ2d 1365 (Fed. Cir. 1997); In re Woodruff, 16 USPQ2d 1934 (CCPA 1976); In re Malagari, 182 USPQ 549, 553 (CCPA 1974) and MPEP 2144.05.
